THE LUCK OF THE IRISH WILL BE WITH YOU AT THE BAY AREA RENAISSANCE FESTIVAL!

TAMPA, Fla., - The Bay Area Renaissance Festival will be kissed by leprechauns March 13 and 14 during the Irish Heritage Celebration. Visitors can participate in celebrating the Irish heritage and history with activities fit for all ages.

Stroll through the festival and listen to the spirited sounds of Irish music performed by Florida's local musicians while savoring the tasty smells of Irish cooking demonstrations filled with classic Irish delicacies. Watch dancers perform traditional Irish dances and Irish pipers all weekend.

Irish setters and terriers are welcome to celebrate too, as pets are always welcome to come and experience the Renaissance. Pet lovers are encouraged to bring dogs and cats to share in the fun of the Renaissance Festival.

The Bay Area Renaissance Festival is located in Tampa, Fl., off I-75, exit number 265/FL-582, on Fowler Ave & 46th St, next to MOSI. It takes place for seven weekends in 2010: February 13 – March 28 and Friday, March 19 for school day. The village gates open at 10 a.m., and closes at 6 p.m., rain or shine. Tickets cost $17.95 for adults, $9.95 for children 5-12 years old, free for children four years and younger. Parking is free and discount tickets are available at participating Walgreen's, Sweetbay, and Circle K and online at www.BayAreaRenaissanceFest.com.
