INDULGE YOUR SWEETIE AND SWEET TOOTH AT THE BAY AREA RENAISSANCE FESTIVAL!

TAMPA, Fla. (February, 2010) – The 2010 Bay Area Renaissance Festival is open this weekend, February 27 and 28, fit for chocolate and romance and filled with treats to satisfy your taste buds!

The Chocolate and Wine Festival is just part of this weekend's festivities. Chocolate shops and wineries from around Florida will be serving samples, spreading their knowledge, and taking orders for future delivery. This will be an opportunity for Festival patrons to experience chocolate and wine as they were in the Renaissance era. Free samples will be available all day, located on the Special Events Field inside the Festival grounds.

Free vow renewals will also be offered to married couples through the weekend. Renewal of vows will be held at 12:00pm and 3:00pm both days.

Besides all the sweets this weekend has to offer, the Festival will be hosting its first annual Charity Auction, benefiting Children's Cancer Center. The auction will begin at 1:00 PM.

The Bay Area Renaissance Festival is a first-class experience whose thirty-second season begins on Saturday, February 13 and ends on March 28, 2010. The Festival is open weekends and a special day for schools and seniors on Festival Friday, March 19, 2010. The Festival is open from 10 a.m. – 6 p.m., rain or shine. Admission at the gate: Adults $17.95; Children 5 – 12 $9.95; four and under are free! Discount tickets available at participating Circle K and Walgreens stores and at MOSI or online at www.BayAreaRenaissanceFest.com. Parking is free. Visit the website or call 1-800-966-8215 for more information.
