DISCOVER THE WONDERS OF THE WORLD AT THE BAY AREA RENAISSANCE FESTIVAL!

TAMPA, Fla., (February, 2010) - Come explore the wonders of the world March 20 and 21 at the Bay Area Renaissance Festival.

Shoppers will enjoy the World Market, with products such as ceramics, glass, crocheted and knitted crafts, and fresh fruits and vegetables among the merchandise that will be available.

Wine lovers can sample a delightful variety of wines at our Wine Tasting, where experts will educate guests and take orders for future delivery. Both the World Market and the Wine Tasting are located in Piper's Valley, the Special Events area inside the Festival grounds.

Guests can also participate or just enjoy watching several competitions this weekend. The Belly Dancing Competition gives participants the opportunity to dance their way to prizes, with categories for both amateur and professional dancers. See balls and pins fly in the Juggling competition, or watch as contestants win hands down in the Arm Wrestling Championship. Anyone interested in participating in these competitions may register at www.bayarearenaissancefest.com.

The Bay Area Renaissance Festival is a first-class experience whose thirty-second season begins on Saturday, February 13 and ends on March 28, 2010. The Festival is open weekends, with a special day for schools and senior on Festival Friday, March 19, 2010. The Festival is open from 10a.m. - 6p.m., rain or shine. Admission at the gate: Adults $17.95; Children 5-12 $9.95; four and under are free! Discount tickets are available at participating Circle K and Walgreens stores and at MOSI or online at www.BayAreaRenaissanceFest.com. Parking is free. Visit the website or call 1-800-779-4910 for more information.
